

Indicative Character

The landscape character of 1-5 Warners Ave unites the local vernacular with this residential development. A predominant native planting palette and natural materials palette helps this site sit within its natural surroundings, synergise with its local materials and blend in with the local flora.

